

Stephen Tanzer's
INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR

90 POINTS

2004 Dobbes Family Estate
Griffin's

“Dark red. Complex, perfumed bouquet of cherry compote, licorice, smoked meat, lavender and saffras; smells like a Barolo chinato. Deep bitter cherry and dark berry flavors are enlivened by zesty minerals and cracked pepper, picking up gentle tannins with air. A serious, brooding style that will confound those who think that New World pinots are uncomplicated fruit bombs. I have to admire the individual character of this wine.”

Josh Raynolds
May/June 2008